

APPENDIX A – STREET TREE LIST

Information from the Syracuse City Zoning Ordinance constitutes appendix A:

Ordinance 10-5-6

(B) Street Tree Species to be Planted. The following list constitutes the official species for trees to be planted on land lying between property lines on either side of all streets within the City. No species other than those included in this list may be planted as Street Trees without written permission of the City Forester. Other tree species may be planted at the written discretion of the City Forester. (2000)

Large 10' or larger parkstrip	Medium 6' parkstrip	Small 4' to 6' parkstrip
Common Hackberry Thornless Honey Locust Chinese Pistache Bur Oak Norway Maple Red Maple Littleleaf Linden Crimean linden Japanese Zelkova Ginko Horse Chestnut Northern Oak Beech London Plain Tree	Japanese Pogoda Eastern Redbud Fruitless Mulberry Mountain Alder Hedge Maple Callery Pear Varigated Box Elder Mountain Ash Upright English Oak	Golden Raintree Lavelle Hawthorn English Hawthorn Bechhtel Crabapple Redbud Crabapple Dorothea Crabapple Japanese Crabapple Radiant Crabapple Snow drift Crabapple Scarlet Hawthorn Golden Chain Tree Rocky Maple Paperbark Maple Bigtooth Maple Kwanzan Cherry

Groundcovers and other plantings will be reviewed and approved per submitted landscape plans.